

Appalachian Treasures

The Struggle to Save the Heart of Appalachia

A multi-media presentation and first-hand accounts from the coalfields

Meet the people who are fighting to save their land and heritage from the ravages of modern industrial coal mining. Learn about the effort to protect their homes, their families, and the mountains themselves from the irreversible destruction caused by mountaintop removal coal mining.

Presentation will be followed by a brief discussion of the implications for local communities impacted by the coal mine boom in Illinois.

University YMCA
1001 South Wright St., Champaign

Wednesday, October 19th
7:30 pm

Hosted by:

Students for Environmental Concerns
Prairie Rivers Network

Presented by:

Appalachian Voices
www.appvoices.org