

invites you to join us on August 9 & 10 for the

9th Annual SANGAMON WATERSHED CELEBRATION

Richland Community College – National Sequestration Education Center*

* Located under the wind turbine on the Richland campus

Friday, August 9

Reception 6 PM – Concert 7:30 PM

- Local Food hors d'oeuvre buffet – prepared by The Prairie Grille
- Conservation, sustainable agriculture, & local food exhibits
- Tim Grimm & Ben Bedford in Concert

Hear them at www.timgrimm.com
and www.benbedford.com

Saturday, Aug 10 – 9:30 AM to 12:30 PM

Perennial Crops and Sustainable Agriculture

9:30 – Keynote Speaker: Joan Nassauer, U of Michigan Professor of Landscape Architecture, is a leading expert on ecological design based on strong science and interdisciplinary collaboration. As co-editor of From the Corn Belt to the Gulf, she analyzed alternative future landscapes and outcomes for Midwestern agriculture.

10:30 – Landscape visions for the Sangamon River and other watersheds

11:15 – A facilitated dialogue on the future of agriculture. Attendees will join invited experts and stakeholders to discuss their agricultural vision and how to achieve it.

Friday reception & concert: $15 advance; $20 at door – Saturday program: Free
For tickets or more information, call 217-877-5640 or visit www.agwatershed.org

Co-sponsors: City of Decatur • Decatur Audubon Society
Community Environmental Council