

Coal Ash Chronicles

<http://www.coalashchronicles.com/>

Toxic coal ash is our country's second largest waste stream, and it is largely unregulated. Why should you care? Investigative journalist Rhiannon Fionn tells the stories of real people affected by coal ash across the country. Find a showing near you!

Vermilion County

Thursday, June 25th, 7:00pm

Kickapoo Landing at Kickapoo State Park
1 Clear Pond, Oakwood, IL

Hosted by: Eco-Justice Collaborative, Prairie Rivers Network, Prairie Group of the Illinois Chapter Sierra Club, and Students for Environmental Concerns

Alton

Saturday, June 27th, 6:30pm

Riverbender Community Center
200 West 3rd Street, Alton, IL

Hosted by: Metro East Green Alliance, Piasa Palisades Group of the Illinois Chapter Sierra Club, La Vista CSA, and the Alton Cluster of United Congregations of Metro East

Chicago

Monday, June 29th, 7:00pm

Wellington Avenue United Church of Christ
615 W. Wellington Avenue, Chicago, IL

Hosted by: Eco-Justice Collaborative, Citizens Against Ruining the Environment, Illinois Chapter Sierra Club, Prairie Rivers Network, and Wellington Avenue United Church of Christ.

Springfield

Tuesday June 30th, 6:30pm

Lincoln Library
326 S 7th St. Springfield, IL

Hosted by: Sangamon Valley Group of the Illinois Chapter Sierra Club.

Peoria

Wednesday, July 1st, 7pm

Unitarian-Universalist Church
3000 W Richwoods Blvd. Peoria, IL

Hosted by: Central Illinois Healthy Community Alliance, Heart of Illinois Group of the Illinois Chapter of the Sierra Club, Global Warming Solutions Group of Central Illinois, League of Women Voters of Greater Peoria, Central Illinois Chapter of the Interfaith Alliance, Greater Peoria Progressive Democrats, and Peoria Families Against Toxic Waste